

CHAPTER SIX The Judy Tuttle Message

Strangely, many individuals today receive spiritual messages which are not from the rebel Prince. They are private revelations, intended to reassure individuals as they face the great deception of our time.

Judy Tuttle was one of those.

Judy posted an Internet message to me and a few others which I ignored for nearly eighteen months, not out of some disbelief, but because I simply did not recognize the relevance of that which she had been given. Later I puzzled over the fact of my delay in coming to recognition of that important revelation.

This is the message Judy was given, as she reposted it to nudge my attention.

“Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.”

Date: Sat, 14 Nov 1998 11:49

FWIW, I found the original message dated Sunday, June 29, 1997. Looking at it now, the time frame seems out of whack. But, what do I know. I awakened at 4:44 A.M. from what seemed to be a restful sleep. All of a sudden I experienced gripping pains in my chest and thought I possibly was having a heart attack. I lay there wondering if I should call the paramedics or just wait and see. I didn't want to be embarrassed if it was a false alarm, yet waiting too long would render me incapable of calling. I opted to wait.

The pain subsided, yet I was left in a state of extreme agitation, pacing back in forth like a caged animal. I decided to go outside and then kept pacing some more. Finally, a message came to me after which I experienced a serene calm and tranquility. If you recall, I have been given the one quote twice, now.

For FWIW, here it is:

The veil has been torn aside. It is no longer the advent of the Antichrist. He is here, now, amongst you, sitting gleefully upon his throne. It is time for the Sons of God to come together. This period will be very intense, but short, ending in the year 2000. You will witness evil the likes of which your mind could never possibly conceive. It is not necessary to make physical preparation. You will be surrounded by a cloak of spiritual tranquility and love. Fear not!

This has been your purpose. You have our love and protection. "We will foster and conserve the higher spiritual types."

"Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor."

P.S. I have proceeded to make physical preparation, providing me with what is perhaps a false sense of control over my life.

(My note: FWIW means "For What Its Worth.")

I shall now discuss the elements of this private revelation which are important to our understanding.

The Veil has been torn aside.

The veil is that lack of perception in which God held his people for 2,000 years. It was necessary to unfolding planetary destiny that man not jeopardize God's plan. Therefore, although he made these events known to us in various revelations, he did not make them discernible to us. Only within the past few years has revelation been opened to us.

Personally, I did not begin to understand these episodes until around 1990. Although I was aware of the dangers of the Devil from my fundamentalist Christian childhood, until then I did not perceive how he would come into power. The several revelations in the Bible were an uncoordinated mixture of elements which I could not properly put together. Then it began to slowly dawn on me how this was going to unfold. Members of a local religious group in the Baltimore-Washington area watched my awareness develop and eventually concluded I had been carried away with my intensity. Persons such as Preston Thomas, Stevie Shafer, Buddy Roogow, Ellen Walker and others can testify to this personal development.

Hence, I can witness to the manner in which the veil has been torn aside.

The key is captured in one simple phrase, "Spirit Entry Into Human Mind." Until I had clarified this concept I do not believe another human mortal had grasped the consequence of such spiritual transactions. Two thousand years of Christianity failed to understand the mechanism by which the Devil can wreak his havoc. This means that although the apostles may have discussed these matters in their various epistles and letters, they did not offer understanding to the generations. God kept understanding from us.

Numerous varied and assorted interpretations of the biblical material were offered over the centuries. Christians still struggle, assigning the revelation episodes to a malevolent personality who takes on mortal form, who “sits on a throne in the Temple” bringing world dictatorship, who uses the number 666 for his identification, and so on, and so on. Most conspiracy theories are woven around such concept, including the use of the United Nations to rule the world.

These interpretations are all political in that they assume this evil personality will take up an earthly throne, and assume world political, as well as evil spiritual rule.

The coming terror will not be political. It will be spiritual.

Before continuing discussion I should point out some of the elements which affect our assessments.

As far as we can determine, the coming persecutions will take place under a functional social environment. The social circumstances will not deteriorate to rampant police or military slaughter. The slaughter will come from Devil’s agents, operating under his spirit control. Society continues, and most citizen’s learn to deal with the extreme circumstances.

How these operations will take place within a functional society is unknown to me. Why would society tolerate such activities? Does a new-age President also become part of that cadre, issuing decrees which permit them to go about their deadly work? I do not know. These details are unrevealed.

We also do not know if economic circumstances may deteriorate to the point that dictatorial imposition will be necessary by national governments to maintain social order. Such imposition is suggested by John’s Revelation, Chapter 13, and the description of a small beast with gentle appearance but which wields great power. The corrupt description suggests an image of computers. The number 666 already is used universally as the UPC, the Universal Product Code, and we all are subject to that computer tool when we buy and sell. The other feature of computer social control is the Social Security, or Coded Card identification now used well nigh universally around the world to coordinate and centralize information for governments and institutions. We cannot buy or sell without such number. Other than this short piece in John’s Revelation we have no evidence for dictatorial social control. John may not have intended more than to describe the secular and godless economic and government control through computers under which we all now operate, even though his images carry sinister portent.

It is no longer the advent of the Antichrist. He is here, now, amongst you, sitting gleefully upon his throne.

He has now been released to do his deadly diabolical work. The throne is his position in God's sanctuary, providing him with the power to prosecute his nefarious designs. While the word "gleefully" may not capture the sentiments of this wicked being he certainly takes advantage of the position our Creator has now afforded him.

Use of the word antichrist takes advantage of the image of someone opposed to our Creator. Although the Antichrist will not truly come until the end of the millennium, the same personality now parades in open contempt of creation.

It is time for the Sons of God to come together.

The reference is not to Divine Sons of God, but to mortal Sons of God, those sons and daughters of God who are willing to give their lives in service to their fellow mortals.

1Thes 5:2-5 — For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When people say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as travail comes upon a woman with child, and there will be no escape. But you are not in darkness, brethren, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all sons of light and sons of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness.

This period will be very intense , but short, ending in the year 2000.

As I pointed out to Judy in our late 1998 correspondence, this time frame is not realistic. Some short period of time is demanded, perhaps two years, and since we are now in the year 2000 it cannot end before 2002.

Why she was given this date is uncertain. Perhaps it was done to bring more alert attention by those who would carefully study Judy's message, but if so, it singularly failed. Few paid attention to the message.

You will witness evil the likes of which your mind could never possibly conceive.

None of us today are prepared for the terror which is about to come down upon us. We simply cannot conceive that horror. We can only wait, as God permits the unfolding, and then respond according to our hearts.

It is not necessary to make physical preparation.
You will be surrounded by a cloak of spiritual tranquility and love. Fear not!

We don't know how to prepare physically. There is nothing we can do. Judy showed her desire to somehow prepare, but such efforts are fruitless.
